

MOUNT COMPASS.

October 22.—As Mr. T. Waye was kangarooing yesterday, about two miles from here, he caught sight of a large fox coming out of a burrow, and he promptly shot it. Upon digging out the burrow he secured six cubs about two months old. These are the first foxes killed in this neighborhood.